1,000 WOMEN TO AID POOR

Plans for Donation Week
Are Completed at Meetings.

TO PREACH SELF-DENIAL

Workers Will Show Crowds What
Cigar, Gum, and Candy Money
Would Do for Needy.

Plans for "Donation Week" were practically completed yesterday at the meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs in the Public Library and the men's executive committee of the full District. Mrs. Ellis A. Logan, organizer of the movement, was present at both the gatherings.

"Donation Week" will begin next Wednesday. For each of the six days an elaborate program has been planned. The first day, Ash Wednesday, is expected to be particularly attractive as the proper time for charity giving. Thursday will be "Suffrage Balloting Day," when each donor is expected to designate the recipient of his gift. Friday will be called "Friendly Visitor" Day, when tourists in Washington will be taken to the various charitable homes and institutions throughout the District in sight-seeing cars. Saturday will be "Market and Bundle Day," the day for donating food and clothing; Monday of the following week, Washington's birthday, a day when patriotic fervor will mean the practical application of charity, and Tuesday, "Federal Day."

1,000 Women Helpers.
Mrs. Logan has 1,000 women helping her and boosting the week to their neighbors and friends. A committee composed of 100 women, representing, as presidents and officials, nearly every club, organization and association in the District, also is assisting her. They will watch more than 150 cash receptacles placed in all parts of the city, and the various food and clothing boxes.

The passers-by will be given a list of about seventy institutions, the treasures which have suffered more or less from the heavy contributions given to war relief organizations, and an explanation as to how far the price of a stogie, Habana, package of chewing gum, box of chocolates or street car ticket will go toward relieving distress among the poor.

The plans for the week were gathered from the larger cities of the country, which have just completed a period of self-denial. The undesignated proceeds will be apportioned by the men's executive committee, composed of H. B. McFarland, chairman; R. T. Moran, E. C. Brandenburg, John Joy Edson, Conrad Syme, Rev. Abram Simon, Father Russell, Rev. Chas. Pierce, Rev. Samuel Green, Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, Hiram Earl Wilkey, Rev. Joseph Kelly, W. E. Murphy, and Col. Grederick Bryan.

Letter Writers Warned.

Foreigners in Syria are at the mercy of their friends in other countries, according to advices received at the State Department. A letter in that country is being opened, and if expressions are found displeasing to the Turkish authorities the recipient of the letter and the writer are to be imprisoned. The State Department advises all Americans writing to friends in Syria to bear in mind that they may cause their friends serious difficulties.

Militia Body to Die.

It was announced yesterday that the annual meeting of the Naval Militia Association will be held next Tuesday in Washington. A dinner, at which many prominent public men will be present, will be given that night.

The Town Crier

A deficient fuse caused a $100 fire to the residence of Thomas Bayne, on Broad Branch road near Chapel road, yesterday noon.

Edgar A. Embrey, of 152 Eleventh street northeast, reported to the police yesterday afternoon that while he was walking on C street, between First and Second streets northeast, he lost his purse containing 95 cents.

Eliza Shaw, forty-five, of 305 G street northwest, was taken to Casualty Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from two broken ribs caused by falling against a trunk in her home.

Dr. C. F. Winbeler will deliver a lecture at the Cairo on Q street northwest, near Sixteenth street, Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. The subject of the lecture will be "Reserved Psychic Energy." The public is invited.

Arthur P. Parvis, chief of the Reclamation Service, will speak on the subject, "A Glance at Conditions in China," before the Liberal Religious Union of All Souls' Cathedral Church at the church this evening at 7 o'clock.

A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict of death by unavoidable accident in the case of Carl Bayer, who died at Garfield Hospital Friday night from injuries caused by colliding with a delivery automobile at Eleventh and I streets northwest on February 8.

James Hugh Keeley will address the Socialist lecture at 511 E street northwest this evening at 8:15 o'clock "Does Socialism Mean More Democracy?" Mr. Keeley is not a member of the Socialist party, but very sympathetic to its aims.

Peter Uta, twenty-three, of 101 Fifteenth street northeast, was taken to Casualty Hospital last night for injuries to his right ear received during an altercation with a colored man at Fifteenth and A streets northeast.

The death of John C. Coleman at the Naval Proving Ground at Indian Head, Md., was reported to the Navy Department yesterday. Coleman was taking apart a detonating fuse when it exploded. The wound was not serious and he died as a result of the shock.

The Belgian baby boxes, the idea of Mrs. Joseph R. Darling of this city, are being filled by thousands throughout the United States, according to a letter from L. W. Bates, vice chairman of the commission for the relief of the Belgians.

The birthday of Susan B. Anthony will be celebrated at 2007 Columbia road tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Anthony, daughter of Judge Underwood, who is in possession of letters and photographs reminiscent of the days when her father was a close friend of Miss Anthony, will speak.

Others who have enjoyed the friendship of the gifted suffragist will be heard from personally. The public is cordially invited as the guest of the Anthony League.

The Washington branch of the Jovian Order, headed by John G. McLaughlin, of the Potomac Electric Power Company, who is statesman of the order; Thomas J. Fisher, who is first tribune, and John R. Calloway, second tribune, will hold its first "rejuvenation" of the year tomorrow night at the Elks' Home.

"War—Its Economic Causes and Remedies" will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered by William E. Walling, an author of New York, before the Washington Alumni Chapter of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society in the Public Library Wednesday night. This is the first of a series of lectures to be given by the chapter.

Colangelo Misseml, thirty-five, of 23 Decatur street northwest, was injured slightly yesterday while riding his bicycle at Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest, when he collided with an automobile driven by Alice Kopp, of 1017 Seventh street northwest. Misseml was taken to Emergency Hospital.

John T. Steele, twenty-three, of Terrace Cottas, D. C., was arrested yesterday charged with robbery. John H. Gettings, a farmer living at Pine Crest, Md., is the complainant. According to the police, Steele, with a companion, assaulted and robbed Gettings, who had given them a ride late at night on their way home shortly before Christmas. The warrant for Steele's arrest has not been served.

Steele's accomplice has not been served.

The War Department will not urge upon Congress the construction of a speedway in East Potomac Park until plans for the improvement of the reservation are completed. The announcement was made yesterday by Assistant Secretary of War Breckinridge to J. C. Love, of 1446 P street northwest, one of a number of persons interested in the project.

"If you are going to buy it, Buy it NOW"

In his recent speech at Indianapolis President Wilson quoted this motto, which had been adopted by the Chamber of Commerce of that city, and said:

"That is a perfectly safe maxim to act on. It is just as safe to buy now as it ever will be."

Don't get the idea that we're going to have hard times and that Furniture will be cheaper. Right now we're offering you high-class goods at lower prices than you'll see again for many a long month.

Last Week of Our Fire Sale

Carpenters and builders are all ready to come in and repair the damage done this building by the recent fire. They will make lots of dirt and dust, and we want to clear out every possible piece of furniture before they begin. Rather than shift this stock from floor to floor we're willing to sell many of the goods at a loss on their actual cost.

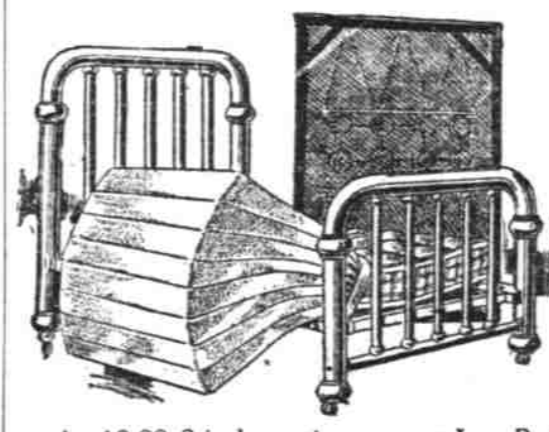

This is your chance for bargains—don't miss it.

WILL BE THANKFUL FOR RAGS.

Serbian Relief Hospitals Also Need Old Linen and Cotton.
Serbian relief workers last night issued an appeal to the housewives of Washington for donations of old linen and cotton for use in the Serbian relief hospitals. Even rags and scraps will be acceptable to the hospitals, according to the relief workers. If they are clean and neatly wrapped.
The cloth is to be sent to 1221 New York avenue northwest, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon until Friday, when it will be forwarded to Serbia.

Asks More Street Cars.

Gen. George M. Sternberg, president of the Sanitary Housing Company, yesterday urged upon the Public Utilities Commission the necessity for additional street car facilities in the southwest section of the city. He said that the housing company has erected 128 residences between South Capitol and One-half streets, and that it is difficult to rent them to laboring men because of the lack of railway facilities.
